Mr. Snyder: Thank you Mr. President. We have an effort here to speed this up somewhat, but still give it three readings. This is in addition on our onwards journey to clean the city up. This would give the empower -- the...Superintendent's of Permits and Inspection to notify the offending property owner one time, and then if it had to do it an additional time, we would just simply either...go out and cut it or post it and go out and cut the weeds and the grass if it exceeds the limit. The first offense is a $50 fine, plus the cost of the actual...cuttings, or whatever we're doing there. And the second fine I believe is $100 plus the cost of the cuttings and then the third and subsequent fines are $250. Is there any questions in committee?

Mr. Lane: No sir.

Mr. Snyder: Members of Council? If not, I would move that...we adopt the second reading of Ordinance No. 53-07.

Mr. Snyder moved and Mrs. Magel seconded to adopt the second reading of Ordinance No. 53-07. All members present voting.

Yes: Lane, Snyder, DeOrio, Hines, Repace, Magel, Foltz.

No: 0.
