Re: OEC Case No. 2002E-027

Dear Mr. Sarbach:

The Ohio Elections Commission reviewed the complaint filed by you at a Probable Cause panel meeting on June 27, 2002. This Probable Cause panel was established pursuant to R.C. §3517.156. After due consideration of the case by the panel, the following finding was made in the referenced case:

The Probable Cause panel determined that there was probable cause that there was a violation of Ohio Revised Code §3517.21(B)(10). The Commission determined to set this matter for full hearing before the Commission at a date to be determined by Commission staff.

Parties have the right to subpoena witnesses, make an opening statement, question any witness called to testify, offer exhibits and make a closing statement at this hearing. Please review the Commission's Rules of Procedure for additional information regarding the hearing process.

You can contact Commission staff at (614) 466-3205. We will do our best to answer any questions that you may have regarding the disposition of your case.

Sincerely,
